

Farming Outlook - Opportunity or Challenge

A special breakfast for farmers and landowners

This special breakfast will mark the start of the Midlands Machinery Show 2016 and is hosted by Streets Chartered Accountants, Langleys Solicitors, NatWest and Brown & Co.

Speaker and Panel

Our keynote speaker will be Roddy McLean, Director of Agriculture at NatWest. Roddy's responsibilities include supporting the Bank on agricultural matters, keeping them informed on current farming issues, helping ensure that the Bank's lending policy towards the sector is fit for purpose, providing advice on more complex agricultural lending propositions and up skilling colleagues across the Bank on their agricultural understanding. Roddy joined the Bank in November 2004, after working for 21 years as an Agricultural Consultant with SAC in NE Scotland and the Scottish Borders. Before joining SAC Roddy gained practical experience on a number of farms around the UK.

Following Roddy's address there will be a panel discussion which will be chaired by Andrew Fearn, Partner and Head of Agriculture at Langleys Solicitors. He will be accompanied by Paul White, a Partner in Brown & Co's agricultural business department and Clare Slattery, an agricultural and land based tax specialist with Streets Chartered Accountants.
